CSW Standards of Professional Conduct
There are certain cognitive, emotional, and character requirements that students must possess that provide the College of Social Work (CSW) with reasonable assurance that students can complete the entire course of study and participate fully in all aspects of social work education and the professional practice of social work. Students in the CSW are expected to possess the following abilities and attributes at a level appropriate to their year in the program. They are expected to meet these standards in the classroom as well as in their practicum.

- Professional Behavior. The social work student behaves professionally by knowing and practicing within the scope of social work, adhering to the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics and the Tennessee Board of Social Worker Standards of Conduct (1365-01-.10) as found in the Tennessee Board of Social Work Certification and Licensure General Rules and Regulations, http://sharetngov.tnsosfiles.com/sos/rules/1365/1365-01.20151222.pdf
- Interpersonal Skills. The social work student communicates and interacts with other students, faculty, staff, clients, and professionals in a professional manner, and demonstrates respect for and consideration of other students, faculty, staff, clients, and professionals in spoken, written, and electronic form. The social work student expresses her/his ideas and feelings clearly and demonstrates a willingness and ability to listen to others.
- Self-awareness. The social work student is willing to examine and change his/her behavior when it interferes with her/his working with clients and other professionals, and is able to work effectively with others in subordinate positions as well as with those in authority.
- Professional Commitment. The social work student has a strong commitment to the essential values of social work (the dignity and worth of every individual and her/his right to a just share of the society’s resources). The social work student is knowledgeable about and adheres to the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics and the Rules of the Tennessee Board of Social Worker Certification.
• Self-care. The social work student recognizes the signs of stress, develops appropriate means of self-care, and seeks supportive resources if necessary.

• Valuing Diversity. The social work student appreciates the value of human diversity. Social work students do not impose their own personal, religious, sexual, and/or cultural values on other students, faculty, staff, clients or professionals. Social work students are willing to serve in an appropriate manner all persons in need of assistance, regardless of the person’s age, class, race, religious affiliation (or lack of), gender, disability, sexual orientation, and/or value system.

Except for alleged academic dishonesty, which shall be addressed through the procedures set forth in Hilltopics, code of conduct violations will be addressed through the CSW Professional Standards Committee.

Academic Standards of Conduct

All social work majors are expected to abide by the University Honor Statement. In social work classes, violations of the honor statement include cheating, plagiarism, collaborating on a graded assignment without the instructor’s approval, providing or receiving unauthorized information during an examination or possession and/or use of unauthorized materials during an examination, submitting the same assignment for credit in more than one course, forging the signature of another or allowing forgery by another on a class attendance sheet, or other infractions listed in “Hilltopics”. These violations are serious offenses, subject to disciplinary action that may include failure in a course and/or dismissal from the University. The instructor has full authority to suspend a student from his/her class, to assign an “F” for an assignment or examination or to assign an “F” in the course. See https://hilltopics.utk.edu for more detailed information.

The Honor Statement

An essential feature of The University of Tennessee is a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere of intellectual integrity and academic honesty. As a student of the University, I pledge that I will neither knowingly give nor receive any inappropriate assistance in academic work, thus affirming my own personal commitment to honor and integrity (Hilltopics).

University Civility Statement

Civility is genuine respect and regard for others: politeness, consideration, tact, good manners, graciousness, cordiality, affability, amiability, and courteousness. Civility enhances academic freedom and integrity, and is a prerequisite to the free exchange of ideas and knowledge in the learning community. Our community consists of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and campus visitors. Community members affect each other’s well-being and have a shared interest in creating and sustaining an environment where all community members and their points of view are valued and respected. Affirming the value of each member of the university community, the campus asks that all its members adhere to the principles of civility and community adopted by the campus: http://civility.utk.edu/

Disability Services

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a documented disability or if you have emergency information to share, please contact The University of Tennessee Office of Disability Services at 100 Dunford Hall (865) 974-6087. This will ensure that you are properly registered for services.
Dimensions of Diversity

The College of Social Work and the University of Tennessee welcome and honor all people. In accordance with the U.S. National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the U.S. Council on Social Work Education (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement), “the dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including” age, class, color, culture, mental or physical disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, immigration status, marital status, national origin, political ideology, race, regionality, religion and spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. The College values intellectual curiosity, pursuit of knowledge, and academic freedom and integrity. “A person’s diverse life experiences may include oppression, poverty, marginalization, and alienation as well as privilege, power, and acclaim” (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement). The College of Social Work promotes social justice and social change, and strives to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice.

Inclement Weather

Class will be cancelled only if the University is closed due to inclement weather. Campus and local radio and TV stations will be notified, so that appropriate announcement may be made. If class is cancelled, any assignments due that day will be due the next time class meets.

BSWO

BSWO is a student organization that provides an excellent opportunity for leadership development, community and university service, the enhancement of group skills, research opportunities, and socialization. The organization and its activities are viewed as an extension of the BSSW curriculum. All students, regardless of major, who are enrolled in a social work course or considering a major in social work, are welcome. BSWO meets every Tuesday from 11:10 -12:25 in 220 Henson Hall. This time slot is built into the class schedule as a lab for many social work courses. Given the time of the meetings, students are encouraged to bring their lunch.

Electronic Device Policy

- You may bring your laptop to class for note-taking and other appropriate classroom work. It is not appropriate to surf the internet, check your email, etc. while in class. The Instructor reserves the right to disallow the use of laptops in class if students use them inappropriately (instant messaging, social networking, surfing the web, etc.)

- All cell phones and smart phones should be silenced and put away during class and Text messaging is strictly prohibited. If you have a special circumstance talk to the instructor in advance.

- All mp3 players (Ipods, etc,) are to be off and stored away during class. This includes removal of all headphones, ear buds, and other listening devices from ears, head and neck during class time. Students who violate these policies can be asked to leave the class and will be counted as absent.

Course Description

This course will focus on the in-depth study of substance abuse including the history, etiology, types of substances, brain biology, effects on families, legal concerns, relapse, treatment options, etc.

Course Rationale

This course is an elective in the BSSW program. It is designed to prepare students for entry-level social work from a generalist perspective. It expands on the basic concepts of social work practice that were presented in other Social Work Practice courses and introduces students to preparation for professional practice by introducing them to a general view of substance abuse and its effects on their clients and families. No matter what service settings they are working in, they will likely encounter these types of problems when they enter professional practice.
Course Competencies
By the completion of this course, the students are expected to be able to demonstrate (through course activities, assignments, and/or exams):

1) Demonstrate understanding of all aspects of substance abuse as a practice model, from assessment to evaluation.

2) Apply the knowledge of chemical dependency as a practice model to specific client populations and problems.

3) Demonstrate understanding of chemical dependency as a practice model.

4) Apply the knowledge of chemical dependency to specific client populations and problems.

5) Demonstrate knowledge of selected social problems such as child abuse, chemical dependency, and severe mental illness and how social workers can best serve people with these problems and their families.

6) Debate and analyze ethical and value dilemmas inherent in the provision of social work services, including challenging one's personal values as they relate to client problems.

7) Further develop oral and written communication skills.

8) Demonstrate understanding of selected research applications to problems studied.

9) Demonstrate understanding of substance abuse within an ecological theoretical framework that includes the particular problems associated with poverty and minority group status.

10) Further develop practice skills relevant to chemical dependency at the micro, mezzo and macro levels

Required Texts

Course Requirements
1. Full attendance and responsible participation: (15 points) Attendance and punctuality are important since skills taught in this class and are fundamental for your professional development and have direct application in future courses, field placements, and practice experiences. Students may be absent once (1) without penalty. For additional absences, points will be deducted from attendance grade for each absence unless arrangements have been made with the instructor in advance of class. Students are expected to call, text or email the professor in advance of class, if unable to attend due to medical condition or emergency.

Students may arrive late (15 minutes after the start of class) for a total of 3 times without penalty. Arriving late more than three (3) times will result in a loss of points from the attendance grade for each late arrival unless arrangements have been made with the instructor in advance of class.
Responsible participation: Students should participate in class activities and discussion. Turn off all cell phones before coming to class. The professor reserves the right to ask any student to close his/her laptop if it is being used for any purpose other than taking notes.

To earn maximum participation points, students are expected to be prepared for each class meeting and participate frequently in class discussions and activities. Students who do not participate in class discussions or who are disruptive or disengaged will receive less than maximum participation points.

This course places an emphasis on developing critical thinking, writing skills, and attendance/participation, as social work is a collaborative practice. The classroom experience will be a combination of lecture and group discussion to facilitate the assimilation of students’ current knowledge with new information so that new perspectives and understandings of social work practice can be formed. Students will gain a more thorough understanding of substance abuse by participating and showing up, as much of the information presented will come from the instructor’s own insight/knowledge which will not be in the text. Taking seriously your attendance and participation will provide you with a more rich experience!

2. Position Paper: (35 points) In order to recognize and effectively treat addiction, one must first understand the disease concept of addiction and that not all treatment interventions are based on this model, nor will it be effective for every client. Some in the medical community and future clients/groups do not subscribe to the disease concept, so it will be critical you have the ability to understand and support both types of clients in any setting. Students should research and explain the use of the disease model of addiction and one other intervention (or just the theory that addiction is not a disease), then choose one theory/approach you prefer and explain your position.

This paper should reflect critical thinking skills, is expected to be grammatically correct, succinct, and professionally written. Please use and cite a minimum of 3 research articles. Papers are to be a minimum of 5 pages in length and need to be handed in during class (paper copy, stapled or in binder) on the due date. (Competencies 3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10)

3. Quizzes: (20 points: 10 x 2 = 20) These points are earned through quizzes on the content of the readings and class materials covered. Missing classes may result in missed information that may appear on a quiz. Instructor may change format of the quiz to classroom discussion/effort to foster participation and collaboration. Should you be absent when a quiz was taken in class, the instructor will email you a quiz due the day after it is received. Quizzes will be multiple choice and true/false, or discussion if completed as a group in class. There will be 2 quizzes.

To take the quizzes, log onto http://online.utk.edu/. The time available to complete each quiz is specified on the quiz. The quiz is open-book, open note, but it is strongly recommended that you thoroughly read all assigned readings for the quiz before taking it. (Competencies met are 1,2,3,4,5,7)

Though the online quizzes are open-book, open-note, they are not collaborative projects. Any copying of the questions, any sharing of questions or answers, any form of collaboration, discussion, or shared information via email or any other medium constitutes Academic Dishonesty as described by UT Hilltopics. As such, it will fully be dealt with by the instructor allowable by UT Hilltopics, which may include suspension from the class and assignment of an “F” for the quiz, the class, or both.

If you are inadvertently logged off of http://online.utk.edu/ while taking the quiz, please email Scott Hendrix @ scotth@utk.edu or call 865-548-3201 and inform him of what transpired. Your quiz will be re-set if necessary.
4. Class Presentation Exercise: (25 points) Fifteen points of the course grade are earned through class presentation. Students will develop a 15-minute presentation on the opioid crisis/epidemic and address the following: the impact on health outcomes/involved costs (both physical and financial), the role of both local/state and federal law enforcement, and provide one possible intervention based on your research and your own ideas. Students should also provide a minimum of a one-page handout identifying the points to be presented to the class. Please also provide at least two research articles (not provided in the text) as additional support for the topic. (Competencies 3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10)

5. Canvas Discussion Questions: (1 X 5 points=5) There will be one Canvas discussion question posted during the semester. Learners are expected to first respond to the discussion board question posted. Limit this response to no more than 200 words. Then, read and reply to at least two of your peers’ posts. Please note that I will be reading the posts as you put them up but will rarely comment. I do not comment to allow for free consideration of all ideas and I am not looking for “correct” responses. Also, you are encouraged in this assignment to question, brainstorm and analyze your readings. You will not be graded on the accuracy of your interpretation, but rather the depth to which you explore the material. The discussion forum will be available under Assignments. (Competencies 1-10)

6. Extra Credit: (3 points possible) Students may earn up to 3 extra credit points by attending an Alcoholics Anonymous or Narcotics Anonymous meeting in the local area and writing a one-page paper (double spaced) describing their experience/observations. Should a group of students attend together, you have the option to take class time to discuss your observations with the class (instructor will ask questions as well) in place of the paper. Local meeting times/locations may be found at www.etiaa.org

Grading
The course grade will be computed as follows:

- Attendance and class participation: 15 points
- Position paper: 35 points
- Quiz #1: 10 points
- Quiz #2: 10 points
- Class presentation: 25 points
- Canvas Discussion: 5 points

The following grading scale will be used for final course grade.
