The Honor Statement

An essential feature of The University of Tennessee is a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere of intellectual integrity and academic honesty. As a student of the University, I pledge that I will neither knowingly give nor receive any inappropriate assistance in academic work, thus affirming my own personal commitment to honor and integrity. (Hilltopics).

University Civility Statement

Civility is genuine respect and regard for others: politeness, consideration, tact, good manners, graciousness, cordiality, affability, amiability and courteousness. Civility enhances academic freedom and integrity and is a prerequisite to the free exchange of ideas and knowledge in the learning community. Our community consists of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and campus visitors. Community members affect each other's well-being and have a shared interest in creating and sustaining an environment where all community members and their points of view are valued and respected. Affirming the value of each member of the university community, the campus asks that all its members adhere to the principles of civility and community adopted by the campus: http://civility.utk.edu/

Dimensions of Diversity

The College of Social Work and the University of Tennessee welcome and honor all people. In accordance with the U.S. National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the U.S. Council on Social Work Education (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement), "the dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including" age, class, color, culture, mental or physical disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, immigration status, marital status, national origin, political ideology, race, regionality, religion and spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. The College values intellectual curiosity, pursuit of knowledge, and academic freedom and integrity. “A person's diverse life experiences may include oppression, poverty, marginalization, and alienation as well as privilege, power, and acclaim” (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement). The College of Social Work promotes social justice and social change, and strives to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice.

Assignment Descriptions:

1) Quizzes:
• All quizzes are located under the tab “QUIZZES.” The quizzes are 5 quizzes, which are open book and open note, but you are not permitted to share answers or discuss the quiz with other students. The quiz will be timed, and you have 1 hour to complete each quiz.
• The lowest quiz grade will be dropped.
• Quiz due dates and content covered are listed on the weekly calendar.

2) In the News (Participation):
• Most classes will begin with an “In the News” discussion.
• Students will come to each class having read and reflected upon the news article posted on the Canvas website for that week. Articles will be available under the “In the News” section.

3) Policy Analysis Presentation and Brief
• The goals of this assignment are as follows:
  o To articulate the social problem this policy was designed to address.
  o To define eligibility rules and target population the policy was designed to address.
  o To understand how political ideology influences policy formation.
  o To effectively apply a policy analysis framework.
  o To demonstrate professional presentation, group collaboration, and writing skills.
• To complete this assignment, you will work in groups to:
  o Identify one state-level policy of interest.
  o Employ the Karger and Stoesz (2017) or McPhail (2003) framework for analyzing policy.
  o Submit a brief outline of the chosen framework.
  o Create and deliver a 20-minute policy analysis presentation. More Detailed instructions, a grading rubric, and example presentations can be found under “Policy Analysis Presentation” on Canvas.
  o Submit a policy analysis brief. The brief will concisely summarize the social problem and a proposed policy solution. Policy brief instructions, a rubric and example briefs can be found under “Policy Brief” on Canvas.
  o Submit an anonymous peer evaluation of all group members.

Note: All social work 510 students will deliver their presentations to a panel of UT-CSW faculty. Faculty will choose one group to present their policy analysis at Social Work Day on the Hill (SWDOH). The chosen group will then develop a poster to accompany their brief and presentation. For this extra time and work, the chosen group will receive 5 points of extra credit added to their final grade.

4) Social Work Day on the Hill (SWDOH) and Reflection Paper
• All students are required to attend SWDOH in lieu of class on March 20th.
• Students are expected to schedule a meeting with their legislator or attend legislative committee sessions as well as participate in SWDOH program activities. Students are encouraged to make appointments with their legislators in advance and to bring their policy briefs to the meeting.
• After attending SWDOH students are required to write a 32-page reflection paper on their experience with policy practice.
• More detailed instructions and a grading rubric can be found under “SWDOH Reflection” on Canvas.

5) Class Facilitation

• Students will work in groups to prepare and deliver course content for Units 10, 11, and 12. Group assignments will be made during the first-class meeting.
• Groups will prepare a 30-minute presentation that covers course content and key points from the readings. Groups will then lead class discussion and activities. Judicious use of multimedia is encouraged.
• Rubrics and additional details related to this assignment are available under the “Class Facilitation” section on Canvas.

Course Outline
