Code of Conduct

It is the student's responsibility to have read the College of Social Work Ethical Academic and Professional Conduct Code that is in the College of Social Work MSSW Handbook (www.csw.utk.edu). Students are also expected to sign and adhere to the Social Work Field Placement Code of Conduct.

The Honor Statement

An essential feature of The University of Tennessee is a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere of intellectual integrity and academic honesty. As a student of the University, I pledge that I will neither knowingly give nor receive any inappropriate assistance in academic work, thus affirming my own personal commitment to honor and integrity. (Hilltopics).

University Civility Statement

Civility is genuine respect and regard for others: politeness, consideration, tact, good manners, graciousness, cordiality, affability, amiability and courteousness. Civility enhances academic freedom and integrity, and is a prerequisite to the free exchange of ideas and knowledge in the learning community. Our community consists of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and campus visitors. Community members affect each other's well-being and have a shared interest in creating and sustaining an environment where all community members and their points of view are valued and respected. Affirming the value of each member of the university community, the campus asks that all its members adhere to the principles of civility and community adopted by the campus: <http://civility.utk.edu/>

Disability

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a documented disability or if you have emergency information to share, please contact The University of Tennessee Office of Disability Services at 100 Dunford Hall (865) 974-6087. This will ensure that you are properly registered for services.

Dimensions of Diversity

The College of Social Work and the University of Tennessee welcome and honor all people. In accordance with the U.S. National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the U.S. Council on Social Work Education (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement), "the dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including” age, class, color, culture, mental or physical disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, immigration status, marital status, national origin, political ideology, race, regionality, religion and spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. The College values intellectual curiosity, pursuit of knowledge, and academic freedom and integrity. “A person’s diverse life experiences may include oppression, poverty, marginalization, and alienation as well as privilege, power, and acclaim” (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement). The College of Social Work promotes social justice and social change, and strives to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice.

General Expectations on Graded Assignments

Graduate level work includes an ability to synthesize one's experience and knowledge into an explanation that illuminates theory and an understanding of the course material. The writing of papers is expected to be organized, succinct in conceptualization and syntax, and grammatically correct. Even if you use a word processing program with spell check, proofread your work. Your final paper is expected to be well-written and error-free.

The usage of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) (6th ed.) format including the use of headings/subheadings, reference list, and title page is expected to be used as a guide for writing and citing sources. The APA format will be rigidly evaluated for accuracy, and proper APA style will carry significant weight in the S.W.O.T. project grade. Grading criteria for written assignments will include, but not be limited to:

- Adherence to assignment specifications;
- Quality and clarity of writing and organization;
- Comprehensiveness;
- Level of analysis and understanding of course content applied;
- The extent to which course concepts, discussion and readings are reflected in the writing;
- Submission of assignments on the dates specified within the guidelines provided; and
- Extent of adherence to APA writing rules.

Students who have writing issues or want to improve their writing should consult the University of Tennessee writing center and/or other writing resources.*

Notes regarding grading:

- Written assignments are expected to be submitted on their specific due date. Any assignment NOT submitted on the specified due date is subject to a penalty of three (3) points per day until the assignment is turned in. Any assignment that is more than 7 days overdue will not be accepted.
- Quizzes 1-5 will open June 10th at 8am and may be taken at any time up until July 1, 2018 at midnight. Quiz 6 will be open from June 25th-July 1st at midnight.
- Discussion Boards correspond to each Module and must be completed within the designated times listed in the course calendar. Grading rubric is on Blackboard.

Details of Graded Assignments

Discussion Boards- Each week this class will have leadership critical thinking activities/cases that correspond with the readings and or lectures. There will be five discussion boards in this online section.

Quizzes- The format for quizzes will include questions covering the content of the week's reading and lecture notes. Quizzes will be open all semester and may be taken at any time up until the last day of class. Quizzes shall cover principles of organization, administration, and strategic planning and community change tactics that promote social and economic justice, combat discrimination and oppression, and increase access to resources.

SWOT Case Application Exam: The SWOT Application will be your final written essay quiz. You will apply the information you've gathered during the semester and work on a case application and SWOT for the quiz. Directions/Prep will be posted to Canvas.

Leadership Self-Assessment Paper (DUE June 12th @ midnight) The purpose of this assignment is to help you develop an insight into your style of leadership and your inherent strengths as a leader. A central part of this paper should be candid, open examination of how you function as a leader within organizations in which you have participated.

Please note: you do not have to be in a managerial or leadership position to be a leader. You should write in the first person. Paper will be graded based on the outline below.

Paper will cover the following sections:

Section I: Strengths Based Leadership Assessment

Goal: To identify and analyze the results of your strengths-based leadership assessment and how you can leverage these strengths across practice settings.

1. What are your top 5 leadership strengths and in which domains do they fall (executing, influencing, relationship building, or strategic thinking)?
2. Do you agree or disagree with the results of the assessment? Why or why not?
3. How have you demonstrated each of these strengths in past or current personal, professional, or educational settings?
 - i. Based on the results of your assessment, identify at least one recommended action per strength that you can employ in a current personal, professional, or educational setting that you have not previously tried or implemented, and provide an explanation for why/how this action step will be helpful in your chosen situation.

Section II: Predominant Leadership Style

Goal: To begin to understand the leadership style most comfortable to the student and analyze methods to broaden the leadership repertoire.

1. What is your predominant leadership Style (directive, participative or delegative)?
2. What are the clear benefits to your using this style?
3. Are there negative side effects to your using this style?
4. Explain how you have successfully used this style using specific examples in work, school, or field...
5. Explain a time when this style (or another style) did not work for the situation in which you used it. Is there another style that would have worked better and why?

Section III: Managerial Limitations (Areas of growth/challenges)

Goal: To understand leadership and character traits that may be problematic.

1. Of the possible managerial limitations or flaws discussed in the readings and class, which do you see yourself manifesting in leadership behavior?
2. How have these limitations influenced your ability to be an effective leader?
3. Are there times when these limitations are useful and necessary? If so, why? If not, why not?
4. Briefly discuss how you intend to address these limitations in an effort to become a better leader, including how can you leverage your identified leadership strengths to address these limitations.

Section IV: Leadership Competencies

Goal: To understand individual strengths as leadership competencies.

1. Of the attributes referred to as emotional intelligence discussed in the reading material and in class, which do you exhibit?
2. Do you see any other skills of leadership presented in Module one that you feel 'fit' and why?
3. Is it within your capacity to strive for other leadership qualities? If so, how will you strive to develop these qualities? If not, what is it that is unattainable for you and how are you going to compensate?
4. Close with a at least three professional development goals and describe a brief plan to work towards those goals

Grading Note- The grading rubric and an example Leadership Self-Assessment for this assignment can be found on Canvas. Your paper should be no more than 7 pages (typewritten, double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12-point font). Your paper will be graded on quality of writing, following of APA guidelines and grading outline, and integration of the professional literature. Be sure to proofread and edit your writing.
