Course Policies:

Students are expected to attend classes regularly, arrive on time, and remain in class until the class period concludes. Class participation is expected. In the case of a medical or personal emergency, the student is to make every effort to contact the instructor or the main office prior to missing a scheduled class meeting. Students are expected to be present on all exam dates unless the absence is approved in advance and due to extenuating circumstances. The instructor reserves the right to administer makeup examinations at their discretion. I may be reached at any time via e-mail or a message left at my office should this situation occur.

Incompletes will be given only according to the rules specified in the University of Tennessee Catalog. Please refer to the catalog for additional information.

University policy regarding religious holidays will be observed. As stated in the UT student handbook, any student may request to be excused from class to observe a religious day according to her/his faith.

Students are expected to come to class prepared to discuss the assigned readings.
