Class discussion of position papers and school board workshop assignments

Psychosocial Assessment Report

School social workers must be able to write succinct and salient psychosocial assessment report. In this assignment, students will contact and conduct an in-depth interview with parent(s) of a school-aged child. Additional information about this assignment can be found in the Ortega article Guidelines for writing an effective psychosocial assessment report in on-line course reserves. Based on the information obtained in this interview, each student will write up a case study assessment. Each paper MUST follow the format listed below with the following subheadings clearly labeled.

I. Background

II. Family background/cultural strengths

III. Medical history

IV. School information

V. Summary

On a separate page, each student must also answer the following questions:

- 1) What did you learn from this experience?
- 2) What would you do differently next time?
- 3) How would you evaluate your strengths & weaknesses in conducting interviews and writing up the results of your interview?

Grading Criteria:

- To what extent did the writer concisely summarize the content from the protocol in each section of the social developmental study?
- To what extent were findings in the social developmental study supported by direct quotes and/or observations rather than personal bias (e.g., personal hunches, gut feelings, practice wisdom)?
- Is the summary a presentation of the major points from each section of the report? (the summary should not contain any new information)

The written report must be typed and double-spaced and should not exceed 5-7 pages (12 point font size) (excluding the separate sheet). This assignment is due on or before March 27, 2007.

Position paper

In this assignment, each student will select a controversial topic related to K-12 education and examine the topic from various points of view. Each student will be expected to find out as much as he/she can about the pros and cons of your topic from journal articles, book chapters, newspaper articles and articles from news magazines, interviews with school personnel and/or students, etc...

Make sure that your paper presents an in-depth description of your topic, a thorough discussion of the arguments in favor and arguments against, and conclude your paper with a discussion of your position on this topic based on these pros and cons. Each student is strongly encouraged to meet with the instructor to obtain his approval before writing this paper.

Possible topics:

- grade retention
- zero tolerance discipline
- single-sex public education
- ability grouping
- school social workers' membership in teacher's unions
- inclusion of special education students
- school vouchers
- school uniforms (do they improve student behavior?)

- corporal punishment in schools
- the need for labeling in order to receive services (see “Rights Without Labels” literature)
- separate schools for gay and lesbian youth
- separate schools for homeless youth
- allowing religious activities in public schools (e.g., Tennessee School Crusade)
- allowing the teaching of sex education in public schools
- home schooling
- the use of Ritalin with students labeled ADHD

This paper must be typed and double-spaced and should not exceed 8 pages (12 point font size). This paper must include a minimum of five references (i.e., refereed journal articles, book chapters). This assignment is due on or before April 3, 2007.

School board meeting/workshop assignment

Each student will be expected to attend at least one local school board meeting or school board workshop during the semester and write a brief paper that focuses on the following questions:

- 1) State the name of the county, number of school board members, demographic characteristics of members (e.g., gender, race/ethnicity, age, occupations, etc...)
- 2) What specific issues were discussed at the school board meeting/workshop?
- 3) What decisions, if any, were made? Describe the group process that resulted in these decisions. Was this decision-making process what you expected it to be?
- 4) Based on your observations, how would you go about preparing to make a presentation to this school board in the future? What would you emphasize or de-emphasize in your presentation?

The written report must be typed and double-spaced and should not exceed 2-3 pages (12 point font size). This assignment is due on or before April 17, 2007.
