Code of Conduct
It is the student’s responsibility to have read the College of Social Work Ethical Academic and Professional Conduct Code that is in the College of Social Work MSSW Handbook (www.csw.utk.edu). Students are also expected to sign and adhere to the Social Work Field Placement Code of Conduct.

The Honor Statement
An essential feature of The University of Tennessee is a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere of intellectual integrity and academic honesty. As a student of the University, I pledge that I will neither knowingly give nor receive any inappropriate assistance in academic work, thus affirming my own personal commitment to honor and integrity. (Hilltopics).

University Civility Statement
Civility is genuine respect and regard for others: politeness, consideration, tact, good manners, graciousness, cordiality, affability, amiability and courteousness. Civility enhances academic freedom and integrity, and is a prerequisite to the free exchange of ideas and knowledge in the learning community. Our community consists of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and campus visitors. Community members affect each other’s well-being and have a shared interest in creating and sustaining an environment where all community members and their points of view are valued and respected. Affirming the value of each member of the university community, the campus asks that all its members adhere to the principles of civility and community adopted by the campus: http://civility.utk.edu/

Disability
If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a documented disability or if you have emergency information to share, please contact The University of Tennessee Office of Disability Services at 100 Dunford Hall (865) 974-6087. This will ensure that you are properly registered for services.

Dimensions of Diversity
The College of Social Work and the University of Tennessee welcome and honor all people. In accordance with the U.S. National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the U.S. Council on Social Work Education (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement), “the dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including” age, class, color, culture, mental or physical disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, immigration status, marital status, national origin, political ideology, race, regionality, religion and spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. The College values intellectual curiosity, pursuit of knowledge, and academic freedom and integrity. “A person’s diverse life experiences may include oppression, poverty, marginalization, and alienation as well as privilege, power, and acclaim” (CSWE 2015 Educational Policy Statement). The College of Social Work promotes social justice and social change, and strives to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice.

Course Description
This is a required Foundation course. Key professional competencies, diversity, justice, critical thinking, and evidence-based practice are emphasized. Organizational, community, and legislated policies related to social issues, problems, and client systems using local to international comparisons. The use of justice, power, social construction and social work values and ethics in analyzing, influencing, developing, implementing, and advocating for policies and programs.

The course establishes the connection between social welfare policy and social work practice. As such, first, the course critically analyzes the historic and contemporary contexts of social welfare. Particular emphasis is put on social workers’ roles as critical thinkers in affecting change. The influence of social policy on the holistic health and well-being of individuals, society and of social work practice is examined.

Course Rationale
This course provides foundation content to students regarding the knowledge about, and orientation to the designs and functioning of social welfare policies, programs, and services. Through their participation in this course, students appreciate and learn the place and influence of social welfare

Course Requirements:

A basic text has been selected and readings are listed in the bibliography. In addition to assigned articles, students are encouraged to draw from a variety of sources including congressional records, peer review journals (see, for example, the list in the syllabus), reliable Internet sources, and news sources. Check current local newspapers, the New York Times (especially the Sunday edition), the Wall Street Journal, the Washington Post, and other regional or national sources, with particular attention to in-depth reporting and editorial analyses and commentaries of current issues. For diverse political perspectives, read in journals such as (from political right to left) the National Review, The Public Interest, The Economist, National Journal, Congressional Digest, The Atlantic Monthly, The New Republic, The American Prospect, New York Review of Books, The Nation, and In These Times.
The course includes lectures, class discussions, group exercises, guest lectures, and student presentations. Graded assignments include in-class examinations and written policy papers. Late assignments will be marked down one letter grade; requests for exceptions should be discussed with the instructor at least a half day before an assignment is due. NO exceptions will be made for assignments that are late because of technological, problems (e.g., printer or computer problems). All written assignments should be double-spaced and sources should be documented and referenced, using APA format. No more than 50% of your sources should be from the Internet.

Students are expected to:
1. Complete assigned readings in advance in preparation for each class session,
2. Attend and participate in class discussion/activities, (unexcused absence will negatively affect your grade.)
3. Complete all assignments on time
4. Enjoy at least some of the work some of the time.

The grading scale for the course is:
A = 93-100
B+ = 87-92
B = 80-86
C+ = 77-79
C = 70-76
D = 60-69
F = <60

The final grade will be determined as follows:
- Exam—100 points
- Quiz—50 points
- Policy Analysis Paper 100
- Testimony—50
- Poster and Presentation 100
- Attendance/ Participation—50

Attendance/Participation
Each student is expected to be present during class, if there is a medical emergency or another difficulty that keeps you from attending class, you must let the professor know prior to missing the class through email or personal conversation. Unexcused absence is a 7 point deduction from participation grade. Participation in the in-class small group activities and classroom conversations is reflective of your ability to read and understand the assigned reading. If you spend the class period texting/focused on outside activities on your computer you will have a 7 point deduction from your participation grade. You will be alerted when the grade will be impacted.

Examination and quiz
The quiz and exam will cover material included in class sessions and readings. The exam, Course Competencies addressed 1,2,4,5 during Week 7 of the semester covers material from Weeks 1-6, and is worth 20% of the course grade. The exam will require your competency in the topics:
- History of social welfare
- Definition of social problems
- Use of evidence based criteria to address problems
- Review of ethical considerations in policy development
- Definition of social policy

The quiz, (Course competencies 1,3,5,6) an open note, book take home exam during Week 15 of the semester, covers material from Weeks 8 – 14. This will require competency in the topics:
- politics in policy development - cultural diversity in the field of policy analysis
- identification of issues of service delivery on local, national and international levels
- issues of social justice

The format of these will be a combination of short answer questions and essay.

Policy Analysis Paper (Course Competencies 1-6, see breakout below)
Course competencies in brackets near each portion of the paper.
During the first two weeks of class, students will be paired to begin work on the policy papers due at the end of the semester. Each student pair will share equal responsibility for preparing a prospectus on the paper to be handed in during the fifth week of class, presenting an in-class brief on the paper during the last three weeks of class, and completing the final paper.

Policy Paper Prospectus. By the beginning of the 5th week of class, each pair of students will hand in a preliminary, double-spaced, 1-2 (maximum) page prospectus of your final policy paper for the class. This short prospectus should identify:
1. The title of the state or national policy you will analyze
2. The social issue it addresses that is your primary concern
3. Your purpose in writing this paper
   Understand an existing policy, and/or advocate for maintaining or changing it.

The prospectus is not a graded assignment, but it will help focus your thinking and research for the final paper. As the semester progresses, I encourage you to discuss your developing paper with me at any time.

The Policy Paper, 20 pages maximum, should include the following components:
The Policy Paper is to be 20 pages per pair. (Hint: The topics discussed each week will build towards a complete paper at the end of the course.)
Since this paper will be written as if you are presenting it as a proposal to convince readers to support your ideas, the report should be written convincingly, clearly explaining the facts and logic behind your recommendation. (Percentage Points)
1. Title Page – Name of your proposal/analysis, for whom it has been prepared, the purpose for which it was prepared, the date of submission, and the names of those in your work group. (4 pts)
2. Executive Summary – “shorter version” of proposal/analysis (no more than 500 words).
   Similar to an abstract or summation in a research paper. It should be on a page(s) by itself.
   The last sentence should be a formal statement of recommendation. (6 pts.)
3. Problem Statement – the third page should begin the narrative. This should be a summary of the problem experienced by the population affected by your policy. Specifics should be included such as numbers of people affected, impacts on individuals and society, and cost of not dealing with the problem. Utilize the components of a problem statement learned in class. (7 pts) (CC 1,2,3)
4. History and Current Status of Policy – previous efforts that have been made to solve the problem and reasons the problem still exists. Demonstrate your expertise in this area to gain the reader’s confidence. Frame the history so that it lays the ground work for your proposal/analysis. You may organize this section by level of government, topically, or through a timeline. (8 pts) (CC 5)

5. Public Perception – this section will summarize your view of norms and values. You will need to discuss how any stakeholders, voting public, the press and legislators may feel about the issue. You should identify groups that would support/oppose a policy. You also will want to provide a framework for a political discourse that will garner support. This section is where you will discuss any relevant issues in relation to NASW Code of Ethics or any other relevant ethical norms. Please include NASW’s position on this. Note any bias/exclusions. (NASW website or visit to representative from local chapter. (8 pts)(CC 5,4)

6. Political Realities – identify political individuals or groups that are likely to take positions on the issue. (Draw from the political analysis we will do in class week 6.) Present your analysis as non-judgmental as possible. (7 pts)

7. Delivery System – discuss the services, programs or organizations tied to your policy issue. Identify strengths and weaknesses (diplomatically) and any ideas for revision. It is best to let facts speak for themselves. (Hint: who, what, when, where, how of delivery system.) (9 pts)(CC 3,4,5)

8. Alternative Solutions – this is to be a brief yet comprehensive discussion of the potential solutions you can develop to solve the problem identified. You may have one solution or several. They should be viable, research backed solutions. (If analyzing an existing policy, are there alternatives to this? What changes could be made?) (9 pts)(CC 1,2,3,5)

9. Cost Effectiveness and Outcomes – you can describe how you would/did determine the best of the alternative solutions. You can base this on cost benefit analysis, forecasting study, etc. You should also describe how this initiative is/would be measured. (You could draw off Part III of Dolgoff & Fieldstein analytic framework.) (10 pts)(CC 3,4,5,6)

10. Proposed Solution – a brief summary of your solution or the policy solution and a summary of reasons why this is the best solution. If any portion of the problems is not addressed, be sure to explain why you did not address it. (9 pts)(CC 1,2,3,4,6)

11. Potential Effects – discuss unintended consequences and the ways these could be avoided. (9 pts) (CC 2)

12. Summary – include a brief sentence or two from each section. A shorter version of the “Executive Summary”. (6 pts)(CC 6)

13. References – APA format; interviews, news articles, journal entries, T.V. news spots, internet sources. etc. included. (8 pts)
   - This paper should be organized by the 13 sections using headings. Use at least 12 references (a wide variety of style with at least five (5) from refereed journals.)
   - Any text beyond the 20-page maximum (including reference list) will not be read/counted toward your grade.
   - This paper is due the last day of class, at the beginning of the session in hard copy ONLY.
14. Testimony—You will provide a testimony based on your policy analysis (Course Competencies 1,5,6)

Page 142 of Rocha’s (2007) Essentials for Social Work Policy Practice provides tips on how to successfully testify before a legislative committee. Make sure that you follow both sections: the substance and the structure. Although this is not a policy brief, you must be familiar with the arguments that may be presented against your proposal. Thus you will want to anticipate these in your testimony and refute them. You will need to be ready to respond to questions. You may use your policy analysis as the backdrop for your testimony. In other words, if there are changes that could be made to the policy, based on your analysis of it, you may choose this issue to use as the subject of your testimony. You will have no more than 20 minutes to present your testimony to the class. This time will include questions and debate may follow. The testimony will be graded as follows:

1. Introduction: Who you are and who you represent. Thank the committee for hearing your testimony (5 pts.)
2. Body: Discuss the bill, give your argument of the specific route the legislation should take. Base this on statistics, research, law, stories, etc. (40 pts.)
3. Be able to state why your proposal is better than alternative suggestions (refute potential arguments against your proposal). (30 pts.)
4. Closing remarks (sum up your proposal, thank the committee again, and provide contact information. (10 pts.)
5. Appropriate page length, grammar, following the directions for a testimony in the book. (5 pts.)
6. Delivery, response to questions, materials used for testimony (i.e. handouts or power point (10 pts)

Group Policy Analysis Poster and Presentation Project: 100 points of total grade

- Students will complete a policy poster project IN GROUPS. This project involves three parts:
  1. The development of policy poster (based on your policy analysis),
  2. The presentation of your policy poster information (using powerpoint), and
  3. The abstract of your poster (due a week before your presentation).

- The goals of this assignment are for you to identify how a current policy addresses a social problem and the delivery of services, to analyze the influences of the policy, and then to develop the recommendations to improve current policies and practices (Course Competencies # 1,2,3,4,& 5).

- In our second class (class 2), small groups with similar policy interests will be formed and will meet periodically throughout the semester to complete the policy poster project. Group members will select one STATE LEVEL policy/issue interest. You may want to visit NASW website at http://www.socialworkers.org/advocacy/default.asp, ‘Legislative Issues’ for ideas.
Our discussion on policy analysis will provide the framework for analyzing policy. Use this framework to analyze your chosen policy. Use government documents, historical analyses and research articles to answer the following questions. You should have a minimum of 10 references. Some class time will be designed for your group’s discussion.

The policy poster will be presented as a powerpoint slide using the poster function.

This Poster and Presentation about the poster content will have the following five headings and address the following information:

1. The Policy:
   What policy will you analyze? Describe when the policy was enacted and at what level of government.

2. Background of the Policy:
   What social problem is the policy designed to alleviate? Provide appropriate Literature review of the problem addressed. Utilize data to explain the social problem. Critically analyze the issues surrounding the problem.

3. Description of the Policy
   What benefits or services are provided by the policy? Who is eligible for the program? How is the program financed? How is the program administered? Identify vulnerable and at-risk populations and specific ways in which these groups are impacted by the current policy?

4. Policy Analysis:
   Analyze the policy. What are the strengths and limitations of current policy? Incorporate into the overall policy analysis the six core values of the social work profession identified in the NASW Code of ethics.

5. Recommendations:
   What are your recommendations to improve current policy? (at least 3 recommendation). These recommendations should address all levels of social work practice and may include examples of how other states have addressed this same policy issue. (CC6)

Each poster MUST be accompanied by a PowerPoint Presentation regarding the poster. This presentation must be between 20 and 30 minutes in length. Posters must contain graphs and pictures in order to receive full credit.

Poster Abstract: Due week before Poster Presentation
Each Group must submit the abstract of your poster presentation. Do not exceed 500 words (excluding your references). Follow the APA format.

Details of grading this group project are as follows:
- Groups will be graded as a group on this project. In addition, each group member will submit a paragraph describing their portion of the work completed on this project.
reserve the right to deduct points from individuals final grade if the work is not correct or reflective of a graduate student.

- Students are expected to actively participate in class presentations. This includes your active participation in your group project and in viewing others’ presentations.
- The practice of policy is inherently a group process and to conduct effective policy practice, one must participate in a group process. Therefore, it is imperative that students engage substantively in the group processes and acquires the skills to integrate multiple ideas and activities respectively and successfully. Be aware, if one group member is not pulling their own weight, not showing up on time or at all for meetings, being difficult to deal with, or simply refusing to do work, then this member will receive an automatic zero for the project. This is a professional program in which our goal is to prepare students to lead an organization. If students are not acting professionally then it brings the whole group down and this just simply will not be tolerated here or in the workforce.
